UNITED STATES OF AMERICA'S MOTION FOR A FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

The United States of America (United States), by its undersigned counsel, respectfully submits the following:

On January 18, 2007, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture ordering defendant Jela Shermarkie Marshall to forfeit a Ruger, Model P94 .40 caliber pistol, bearing serial number 340-93346.

Following entry of an order of forfeiture in a criminal case, the government must publish notice of the order in a manner consistent with the provisions of Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(1) which gives the Attorney General plenary authority to prescribe the manner of such notice. The Attorney General has determined that the provisions of Rule G(4) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime and Asset Forfeiture Claims ("Supplemental Rules") should be the manner of such notice.

Rule G. Forfeiture Actions In Rem

(4) Notice.

(a) Notice by Publication.

(i) When Publication Is Required. A judgment of forfeiture may be entered only if the government has published notice of the action within a reasonable time after filing the complaint or at a time the court orders. But notice need not be published if:

- (A) the defendant property is worth less than $1,000 and direct notice is sent under Rule G(4)(b) to every person the government can reasonably identify as a potential claimant; or
- (B) the court finds that the cost of publication exceeds the property's value and that other means of notice would satisfy due process.

Pursuant to this rule, publication of notice of a criminal order of forfeiture is not required if one of the exceptions in Rule G(4)(a) applies. The Rule provides that no publication is necessary if the property is of de minimis value or if the court finds that the cost of publication exceeds the property's value.

The exceptions apply in this case and publication is not required as the firearm is worth less than $1,000 and the cost of publication exceeds its value. Further, the only known potential claimant to the property is the defendant in this action.

Accordingly, the United States respectfully requests that this Court enter a Final Order of Forfeiture as proposed in the attached Order, without the necessity of notice in accordance with Rule G(4).

Defense counsel does not oppose entry of a Final Order of Forfeiture.

Respectfully submitted this 23rd day of January, 2008.

FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

WHEREAS, on January 18, 2007, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, forfeiting the following property to the United States:

a Ruger, Model P94 .40 caliber pistol, bearing serial number 340-93346.

WHEREAS, publication of notice was not required pursuant to Rule G(4)(a) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime and Asset Forfeiture Claims as the property is of de minimis value and publication would exceed the property's value; and,

WHEREAS, the Court finds that defendant Jela Shermarkie Marshall had an interest in the firearm that is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924 and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c). The United States has established the requisite nexus between such firearm in the commission of the violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1).

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. The following firearm is hereby forfeited to the United States pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924 and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c):

a Ruger, Model P94 .40 caliber pistol, bearing serial number 340-93346.

2. All right, title and interest to the firearm described above is hereby condemned, forfeited and vested in the United States and shall be disposed of according to law;

3. The United States District Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purpose of enforcing this Order; and,

4. The Clerk of the Court shall forward two certified copies of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office.

SO ORDERED this the ____ day of January, 2008.
